

MEGAN CRAWFORD

Megan is a Career Coach who understands how and why people get hired. She is focused on helping job seekers navigate an overwhelming job search world. Megan helps clients design a job search strategy that fits their unique background and personality. She is a straightforward career coach who helps clients reach their career goals.

Prior to becoming a Coach, Megan spent 15+ years leading recruiting efforts at large and small organizations. As an Adjunct Professor at Drexel University, Megan also taught graduating seniors how to transition from school to work.

No matter the moment in a person's career, Megan is passionate about guiding people to a productive, fulfilling career path.

Expertise

- Career Coaching
- Relocation/Outplacement
- Career Change
- Résumé Writing
- Goal Setting
- Interview Training
- Market Research
- Networking
- Personal Branding

Accomplishments

- Assisted over 400 relocating job seekers network with target organizations.
- Coached 300+ clients on résumé, LinkedIn, Personal Branding and Job Search Strategy via The Muse maintaining a 5-star rating and 100% client satisfaction.
- Wrote and edited hundreds of résumés and LinkedIn Profiles for clients across industries.
- Trained outplacement and relocation career coaches on how to work with recruiters. Developed relationships with hiring managers across the US.
- As Chief Talent Officer, doubled size of organization within first year through recruiting, networking, and marketing. Created a high touch and candidate focused recruiting process.

Education

B.F.A., Studio Arts- Painting & Sculpture, Kutztown University, Kutztown, PA

