

Jane Wytzka is a Board-Certified Career Coach with over 20 years as a coach. She works with all levels of individuals in many different locations. She believes that everyone can benefit from career transition services. Whether a candidate is a shop floor worker or a C-suite executive, her mission is to prepare and support them through a job search and teach them to thrive in their new job. She also coaches people in non-financial retirement transition and building or buying a business.

Jane has helped thousands of people through coaching, teaching and career consulting. She believes she is making a difference in the lives of each person she works with. She helps candidates identify their true potential in the world of high-competition employment and encourages them to find a position that fits their specific needs and goals.
