

AMY GEFFEN, PhD

Amy Geffen is President and Chief Career Coach of Geffen Careers. She brings to her practice over thirty years of experience in such industries as finance, engineering, higher education, risk management, health, non-profit organizations and associations.

Expertise

- Assessment
- Interview Preparation
- Long-Term Career Planning
- Strategic Career Planning
- Blended Learning Solutions
- LinkedIn Profile
- Résumé Writing
- Salary Negotiation
- Train the Trainer
- Subject Matter Expert (Hidden Job Market, LinkedIn Profiles to Get Noticed, Job Search Over 50)

Experience

- Led weekly groups of five job seekers through the five-step job search process.
- Presented regularly for SIBL New York Public Library, Savvy Ladies, and FairyGodBoss to groups of 65 to 100.
- Career Coach for Columbia Teachers College TC Next, Brooklyn College, BMCC.
- Former President and CEO of the New York Society of Security Analysts, the Interim Executive Director of the Financial Women’s Association.
- Prior Director of Continuing Education, Strategic Initiatives, and Volunteer Leadership at the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. Former Assistant Dean of Continuing Education at Westchester Community College, the Dean of Professional Development at The College of Insurance (now St. John’s University), and Director of Corporate Programs at LIU/Brooklyn Center.

Education

PhD, New York University
M.A., Harvard University
B.A., Brooklyn College

Memberships

Business Network International
Manhattan Chamber of Commerce
NYSAE – New York Society of Association Executives

Publications

How to Find Your Dream Job, 2019 Bookboun

