

Natasha Kosoff

Natasha Kosoff is a certified career coach who is passionate about helping others identify, design and build fulfilling and value-driven careers. She values authentic connections and seeks to establish an honest and feedback-based dialogue to move you towards achieving your long-term and short-term goals.

Natasha offers a full-scope of career coaching and consulting services, from resume, cover letter and LinkedIn profile writing, to mock interviews, networking, personal branding and related job search strategy. In her coaching role, she relies on over 15 years of prior experience in corporate, government, and nonprofit sectors. She has coached individuals across diverse industries, levels and functions and is dedicated to the success of everyone she works with -- from professionals in transition, to those looking to re-launch or change careers.

Expertise

- Mid-Career Transitions
- Career Transition Coaching
- Job Search Strategy
- Résumé Writing and Editing
- LinkedIn/Social Media
- Personal Branding
- Interview Preparation
- Salary Negotiation
- Re-entering the Workforce after a Career Break

Experience

- Coached 100+ individuals from diverse backgrounds, spanning Law, Public Policy, Finance, Technology, Hospitality, Media & Entertainment, and Health & Fitness.
- Built a coaching practice specializing in mid-career transitions.
- Expertise coaching clients going through career change.
- 15+ years of prior experience and increasing responsibility in corporate, government, and nonprofit sectors.
- Led a project to design an e-learning tool and facilitated training workshops for a nongovernmental organization.
- Formulated strategic plans and led fundraising initiatives for an arts education nonprofit.

Education

M.P.P., University of Michigan Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy

B.A., Brandeis University

Organizational and Executive Coaching, Professional Certification, New York University

Myers-Briggs Type Indicator Qualification, American Management Association

